

DEFINITE OBJECT NEEDED TO SAVE

Few People Can Systematically Deposit Money Unless It Is For Some Specific Purpose.

LOCAL MAN GIVES INTERVIEW

W. L. Gansert Points Out Concentration of Energies Furnishes Enthusiasm Required for Success.

Concentration, enthusiasm and a fixed purpose were given as essential to the saving of money and acquiring financial independence, in an interview which W. L. Gansert of the Gansert Candy company gave out today relative to the thrift campaign which is being conducted in this city.

"Saving money is not the easiest thing in the world. To become independent one must pay the price. We give money there are two things which are very important—having a definite object in view and being systematic. These two things go together," said Mr. Gansert.

"Having an object will help you to concentrate your efforts and direct all your energies in the desired direction.
A man of only average ability with concentration can accomplish more than a man of unusual talents without it, and, moreover, system and objective will give you enthusiasm, and that is the power which drives our mental machinery."

"As one of the best ways to get out and keep out of the rat is to have some fixed object to work for, save money with some definite, worthy purpose, and you will find it is comparatively easy, while without such an aim it is hard. Perhaps there are a few who are able to save money for the pure pleasure of saving, but the average individual must have some very attractive object in view to prevent him spending his money for the numerous pleasant things that attract him day by day."

"Even as the most unorganized business enterprises are the best organized and managed, so the individual who uses forethought and system in the handling of his personal financial affairs is the most likely to make satisfactory progress."

Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Hardly Able to Move.
Harrisburg, Penn.—"When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because my work compelled me to stand all day. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house"—Mrs. FRANK KNOX, 1642 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.
Pittsburg, Penn.—"Your medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day"—Mrs. CLEMENTINA DUERRING, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

PATRIOTISM OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Faithful Devotion to Duty an Essential Requisite in the Administration of Postal Affairs. The Fourth-Class Postmaster—An Interchangeable Personnel.

In a scholarly and thoughtful address recently delivered by Hiram Dinsmore before the National Association of Postmasters at Alexandria May 8, the meaning and intent of the postal service was indicated and whether in the postmasterial art lies in the following terms: "The true founders of our country or in the thousands of highways traveled by mail, by carriers in the cities and towns, or government realized that the progress and security of society depends upon the preparation of its members for patriotic and intelligent cooperation from the number of the highest officials. It is, therefore, not sufficient that the framers of the constitution for a government established for and the interest of the people should place in its first declaration of independence a special postal provision to order that the postal service should be made a democratic family." Today, as never before, the postal service is to receive as it is fundamental, educational and patriotic, the promotion of mutual co-operation of posts and post offices among men and nations and the enlargement of the common life.

It was not by accident known that fully 75 per cent of all civil service employees in the government are in one way or another connected with the postal service. Some 150,000 clerks, be it noted, of the 150,000 in the branch of the government, are engaged in postal work. The郵政局長 (Postmaster General) is the chief of the postal service.
